14	Creditanstalt-Bankverein	1855	101,000	-	78.61	21.39 (1)	70,700	77.24	76.92	11.90	.44 (2)	15 May 47	The Austrian Nat'l Bank was liquidated under duress by the Reich and Gov. bonds were given to the stockholders at a par value rate. The surplus & the resulting liquidation profit were pocketed partly by the Reich directly, partly by the VIAG. The latter acquired sufficient assets from a subsidiary of the H.B. (Inkredit) to create the Alpen Elektro Werke. Present status not clear, being run as a Gov. agency. (1) 18.78% unknown. Probably Austrian. (2) 10.42% unknown. 76.92% of the Creditanstalt shares, which are now owned by Germans, were acquired under duress and are therefore malefide German property.
22	Genossenschaftliche Zentral-Bank Wien A.G.	1927	5,000	-	100.	-	3,500	96.71	96.71	3.29	-	29 Sep 47
24	Bieggelke & Co.	1914	sole proprietorship	-	100.	-	partnership	100.	100.	-	-	22 Apr 47	All of the shares held by Germans in 1945 were acquired under duress and are therefore malefide German property.
29	Hypotheken & Credit-Institut A.G.	1896	10,400	-	98.79	1.21	12,000	99.5	99.5	.5	-	8 Aug 47	Title to the bank was acquired by the German owner under duress, and is therefore malefide and cannot be considered to be appropriate for reparations.
34	Laenderbank Wien A.G. (Laenderbank, Vienna)	1880	Branch of French Org.	Property of French Head Office			20,000	98.94	-	-	1.06	17 Jul 47	The acquisition of the German participation was effected under duress and is therefore malefide.
	(Mercur Bank)	1887	15,000	94.95	.38	4.67
36	E.v.Nicolai & Co. S.M.v.Rothschild Vienna, in liquidation (private bank)	1820	sole proprietorship	-	100.	-	partnership	100.	100.	-	-	19 Mar 47	The adequacy of the purchase price paid for the central European Laenderbank by the Germans to the French, appears adequate and indicates the absence of force or duress.
													The Germans acquired the bank by direct forcible action.

NOTE: In the case of all banks, whether the German interest is bona fide or male fide, there is no German External asset appropriate for reparations because liabilities exceed the available assets. Assets located in, or due from Germany, are not considered "available".
